

Amber Saskill

7929-26th Avenue
Kenosha, Wisconsin 53143
Phone & Fax: (262) 605-8885
Email: globalsas@juno.com
www.globaltales.com

OBJECTIVE

To encourage youths to live up to their potential and to become life-long learners.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Works well with children of all ages. Being a young adult, children are eager to listen to what she has to say.
- Trained in public speaking from the age of four.
- Fluent in French, Spanish and English.
- A professional storyteller for several years.
- Many youths have seen Amber as a positive young role model and have been encouraged to grasp the importance of literacy in our everyday lives.

EDUCATION

2003 Graduated High School (American School)

EMPLOYMENT

1995 - Present Storyteller, Global Communication

- Travels across the country and abroad telling and collecting stories.
- Sets up and managed sound systems for school assemblies.
- Assists in record keeping and booking procedures.
- Utilizes singing and Instrumentation for various programs and recordings.

1999 - 2000 Bookstore employee, The NeverEnding Story

- Performed cashier and clerk duties.
- Portrayed a variety of characters from popular and classic children's literature.
- Presented stories and language learning activities for children in Spanish, French and English.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

- 2003—Chosen to perform at the International Storytelling Center's Teller-In-Residence Program.
- 2000—Judged from over 30,000 candidates from across the country, the "Grand Storytelling Torchbearer" (#1 Youth Storyteller in America), by the National Storytelling Olympics Committee.
- 2000—Performed at "Youthful Voices, National Storytelling Festival 2000.
- 2001—Honored as emcee the National Storytelling Youth Olympics at East Tennessee State University, in Johnson City, Tennessee.
- 2001—Featured with her mother, Sadarri Saskill, on a National award winning audio cassette, Shake Your 'TALE' Feathers.
- 2001—Featured on recordings, "Finding True North" and "SOL MATES"